MISS IDA MAY ADAMS TELLS OF HER TRIP TO CALIFORNIA.

Los Angeles, Cal.
Dear Editor:—
Since almost a hundred of my Rockcastle friends have written asking for a description of my trip I know of no better way to comply with their request than to write them and others through the pages of the SIGNAL. Los Angeles is so pretty that I feel like taking the whole time in telling you of its beauties and delights, but so many of you have heard me on this subject before that after telling you just a little of our abiding place I will pass to the more interesting details of the trip across the continent by way of the Northern Pacific, which took just nine days barring the time at Yellowstone.

My sister and I are keeping house in a charming bungalow, such as are built nowhere else in the world as in southern California. The house has so many windows, all on hinges so as to open the full length of the window; that so far as air is concerned we have free circulation in the house as though we were out of doors. The modern conveniences in our house, as in most of the other houses, make me feel every day as if I wanted to come back to Rockcastle, and show my friends all of the simple devices that contribute so much to our ease and comfort as well as to the beauty of the homes.
Not a bed in our house is in sight, being every one built into some nook or cranny. The most unique one of our beds is built into a door of ordinary size. It is a full sized bed and does not fold. It disappears into the wall by simply closing the door. Our dining room and kitchen are so arranged that we can lay the cloth, set the table, and put the food on the table while we are both seated at the table in the dining room, then when we have finished eating we can clear the table in the same way without moving our seats.
As we pass everything from the table through concealed panels in the woodwork of the wall, onto the kitchen shelves, table and sink, bookcases, buffet, cooler, desks etc., are all built into the wall. From the table we can switch on any number of all of the electric lights in the house.
The bath room may be entered direct from any one of our five rooms. The 60 gallon hot water tank in the bath room is concealed from view by being inside a closet. The tank is supplied with an instantaneous gas heater. The arrangement is such that the water passes through coiled pipes and the contents of the entire tank can be heated in less than 3 minutes. A medicine chest, built in, the lavatory, and soiled clothes chute, which carries the soiled clothes to the laundry room. A vacuum washer, hot and cold water, stationary white porcelain tubs, built in ironing boards, and an electric iron in the cool screened laundry room, making washing a pleasure instead of drudgery.
The kitchen is the most convenient and attractive room on the place.
A gas range, refrigerator, sink and various electrical appliances make you understand why we do not need a servant even if we could afford it. We have a row of enormous palm trees in front of the house and a row of lemon trees at the rear. We picked 3 dozen ripe lemons from our own trees this morning. Our flowers which form our hedge fence and grow in such luxuriance are a great pleasure to us.

We left Louisville on the warmest day of the season. Crossing Illinois we felt the heat greatly and at Chicago it was simply terrible, but after we passed St.
Paul, Minnesota, we had delicious weather. The prairies of Illinois and the fertile fields of Minnesota all have their charms, but the first thing that interested me greatly was something I had not seen before, the "Bad Lands" of Western North Dakota and eastern Montana. They are to the far northwest what the Great American Desert is to the south west, and yet they are very different in character, rugged in some places, flat in others, barren and almost totally uninhabited. they present a picture of such utter loneliness that the traveler having once seen will always carry it with him. We had not seen a human being or an animal for 50 miles or more.

For 8 or 10 miles around, the surface was level and wind swept.
In the midst of this level tract there arose one solitary hill, so bleak, so barren, so completely without companions and so utterly without apparent reason for being there, that it reminded one of a lost traveler.
Upon the crest of the hill stood a group of half wild mustangs, huddled together, their manes streaming, their noses in the air, they gazed into the distance longingly as if they would give all their boasted freedom for the sound of a master's hand.
Although much of North Dakota and Montana is such beautiful country it is all so different from our Kentucky lands that a Kentuckian finds it constantly interests him. The absolutely treeless plains give one almost as wide a range of vision as if he were out at sea. This is my fifth trip across the Rockies but they have lost nothing of their grandeur and fascination for me. There is a majesty in their size and ruggedness that makes them typically American and in proportion to the tremendous scale upon which Americans do everything. But besides such mountains, glorious specimens of God's handiwork man feels his insignificance. Our first stop over was in the heart of the Rockies at Livingston, Montana, the nearest railroad point to Yellowstone National Park. I am not going to attempt a description of the world's greatest National Park, with its superb mountains, canyons, geysers lakes and wild animals, because most of you have had from various magazines much more graphic descriptions than I could give. It takes about three weeks to go through all the places of interest in the park but 3 or 4 days suffice to see the greatest features and get a general idea of the whole.
Comparatively few people take the entire three weeks journey as it is very expensive as well as fatiguing. Of course in the park one must spend the night in camp.

After we resumed our journey the next point of interest was Blossburg, Montana, which marks the Continental Divide with an elevation at the railroad track of 5573 feet and the mountains all around towering thousands of feet higher. It was quite cold here with snow almost everywhere.

Helena the capital city is an attractive little city but at a glance it represents no features out of the ordinary. The most interesting place in Montana to me is Missoula, a city quite far to the West of the State nestled among the snow covered mountains like a beautiful gem in a platinum setting. We reached it just in the early twilight and spent about an hour drinking in the air that was so cold and sweet and pure. I wish I could tell you just how beautiful the place is.
No figure I can call to mind is adequate. Missoula is situated at the head of the famous Bitter Root valley, which is one of the most celebrated fruit regions in the world. The land in this valley is worth two thousand dollars an acre and as we ate of the fruit grown there, which is so big and luscious I could understand why men are willing to pay such prices. But like every other good thing this valley has its bad side. In the grass and bushes there is a tick about three times the size of our ordinary wood tick which burrows into the flesh and causes a fever absolutely fatal in its character.
Not one case has ever recovered.
The U. S. government is now spending thousands of dollars in an effort to determine the species of tick that is fatal and a way to exterminate him. Government experts are now on the field. After the supper at which we feasted on the fruit of Bitter Root Valley we slept soundly in our berths and awoke in the state of Washington. We are sorry that we were asleep when we passed through Spokane but we could not have all the good things in the day light. The Rockies had been beautiful but their barren greatness cannot compare in beauty with the densely wooded though towering peaks of the Cascades. Marvelous forestry, numerous water falls and prehistoric sides renders these mountains unequalled in beauty even in Switzerland. I could write all night for there is more to tell from here to the end than from the beginning until now. As I have told you nothing yet of the Shasta route for "The Road of a Thousand Wonders", but the whole SIGNAL cannot be given to a single letter nor the time of its readers to its perusal but if the editor wants more of it we shall give the other half at a later date.

Sincerely,
Your friend,
IDA MAY ADAMS.

SURPRISING CURE OF STOMACH TROUBLE

When you have trouble with your stomach or chronic constipation, don't imagine that your case is beyond help just because your doctor fails to give you relief. Mrs. G. Stead, Plain field, N. J. writes: "For over a month past I have been troubled with my stomach. Everything I ate upset it terribly. One of Chamberlain's advertising booklets came to me. After reading a few of the letters from people who have been cured by Chamberlain's Tablets, I decided to try them. I have taken nearly three-fourths of a package of them and can now eat almost everything that I want." For sale by all dealers.

The just complaint of the retail merchants in the smaller places is in the fact, not that they cannot compete with the mail order houses in large cities but that they frequently are not given an opportunity to compete. The doctor, the lawyer, the minister and the farmer, impressed by glowing descriptions of bargains in the mail order house catalogues, send away their orders without ever figuring with the local merchant. I am quite sure that often this is done thoughtlessly. The doctor does not stop to think that it is hardly fair for him to be supported by a community and then when he wishes to buy goods to send the money his community has paid him to some far-away city. This is equally true of the lawyer, the school teacher and the minister. They do not realize that they are not giving the local merchant a square deal when they send their money away without even asking his price.

FURTHER preparations for peace have been begun at the Brooklyn Navy Yards by laying the keel of the latest U. S. battleship, for which there is an appropriation of $46,000,000. The gigantic peace preserver will be one of the largest men-o-war afloat, having a displacement of 31,400 tons; 608 feet long, 97 feet beam, and a draught of 28 feet 10 inches. Peace is pleasant; but it is a very costly article. The price of a few battleships would build an ocean to ocean highway, and continue a monument of public service long years after the hulks of the battleships had gone down at sea, or have been consigned to the junk pile.—Climax.

JAMES MARET, for many years correspondent of the Interior Journal from his home town of Mt. Vernon and as clever a man as ever trod the rugged road of the newspaper business, is a candidate for county clerk of Rockcastle. "Lordy Mussy" how we'd like to deaden over the line and vote for him.—Ed Walton—Richmond Climax.

Quit worrying about the past. Don't promise yourself too much in the future. All you have is right now. Devote your main attention to the unlimited, immeasurable possibilities of the present moment.

LIVINGSTON.

Bill Pennington has moved his family into the property of the H. W. Bowman estate on West Main St. This is the man that moves so much his wife declares that she has lots of house hold goods that she has not seen for years for they don't stay in one place long enough to unpack them.—Well since the boys can get their booze again there is quite a lot being shipped, but as we now have one of the quietest towns on the map we don't think it will cut any figure here.—Mrs. C. E. Rice was with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Paynter, Sunday, near Brodhead.

W. H. Connongim went to Louisville Friday and brought Miss Hazel Salyers home on a vacation from the Masonic home.—Five sections of trains passed here Wednesday loaded with soldiers enroute to Middlesboro, Ky.—Mrs. Mary J. Brannan and daughter, Miss Mary B. of Habersham, Tenn., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Foure.—Capt. W. R. Dillion, of London, Ky., was here Wednesday.—James Fillbeck living near town has measles.—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shiplet are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine boy on the 14th.—T. J. Singleton is working as operator at Lebanon Jct., for a few days.—Mrs. R. J. Lemonds and daughter, Elizabeth, are visiting relatives in Louisville this week.

Mr. Edgar S. Albright was here a few days ago advertising the big fair at Mt. Vernon. All should attend this fair as it was O. K. last year and there is ever reason to believe it will be better this. W. M. Hicks and myself had planned to attend every fair within a radius of fifty miles believing by so doing we could persuade some fair daisies to enter the matrimonial ring with us.—It seems so funny the candidates as they pass through a crowd everybody is brother, cousin or uncle and now there is peace on earth and good will toward all men and the time to have a love feast is just before a Republican primary.—Miss Nettie Rice who has been visiting relatives at Paris for a few days has returned home.—Judge Witt and Henry Daugherty left Sunday in a boat to go to Burnside looking after logs and ties belonging to the Livingston Lumber Co.—Once again our jail is empty. Wonder who will be the next inmate.—Hugh Miller candidate for County Judge was here Monday shaking sands with the dear people.—Wade Graves the telephone man has several hands repairing the telephone line.—Sam Ward Jr., of Chicago Ill., is with relatives here this week.—Mr. Charlie Bowman was in East Bernstad Tuesday on business.—Dixie John, the great musician gave a show at the Masonic Hall Monday night.—There is a certain widower who hails from the Sand Hill region who is making weekly visits to Ford Hollow and a certain young girl seems to be the attraction and we think there will be a wedding soon.

W. G. Rivers has moved over the river into the Ward addition.—James Nelson and Miss Lina Rivers were united in the bonds of matrimony last Friday at the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

To the Republicans of Rockcastle County:

In announcing my candidacy for the Republican nomination for the important office of Sheriff, subject to the action of the Republican party in its primary, Aug. 2nd next, I do so, conscious of the fact that no Republican voter can oppose me because of a flaw in my Republicanism, or truthfully charge me with unfaithfulness to the cause of the republican party. Ever since I have been a voter I have taken a very active interest, in connection with my party workers, in an effort to make the Republican party stronger in this county. The record we have made shows the fruits of our labor. We snatched this county from the incompetent hands of Democracy a few years ago by a small majority; but since then, being strengthened by the Republican business-like management of the public affairs in the County, nation and everywhere, we have grown, step by step, until the county has no fear of again being handled by Democracy's vile hand of greed and spoliation.

I worked at the election when the Republican party won its first victory. In that struggle I, with others of my immediate family, was found where the battle was fiercest and the bullets flew thickest. My old grandfather was there; my father was there, and I had brothers all engaged in the struggle to free this county of ring rule and Democratic machine domination. Others whose hair has grown gray in the service of the Republican party were there, space will not permit me to name them all, but they are known. We stood then where I stand now, against rings, cliques, and machines, and for the people and their rights. From that day to this good hour my interest in the welfare of the people and their rights, and the cause of the Republican party, has not abated, but has strengthened and become firmer with each succeeding year.

You have honored me by electing me to the office Jailer of this county. I appreciate the honor and am thankful to you for the office, which I could not have had but for your suffrage. I have tried to make you a good officer, and have endeavored to do my duty fairly and impartially.

In the past where an officer has shown zeal and capability and interest in the office, and has been faithful to the trust reposed the people have endorsed his official acts by electing him to another office of a higher rank, if the service to be performed are somewhat similar. I am only asking you to do for me what you have done for others in the past. If nominated and elected to this office I promise you I will sacredly keep the oath that the law requires must be administered to a sheriff at the time he enters upon the discharge of his duties, which is substantially as follows. To do right as well to the poor as to the rich in all things belonging to the office of Sheriff; to do no wrong to any one for any gift, reward or promise; nor for favor or hatred, and in all things pertaining to the office to faithfully and impartially execute the duties of the office according to the best of his skill and judgement.

I will appoint as my only deputies in (as) of my nomination and election, Hubert Barnes, of Brodhead, and Daniel Ponder, of Livingston. These men are young, active and have the essential qualifications to make good officers; they will treat the people right. I personally vouch for their honesty, integrity and their Republicanism. In the past they have rendered valuable party service in their respective localities.

Having confidence in the great body of Republicans of this county to do the fair and just thing in this coming primary, I submit my cause for your consideration.

Yours very respectfully,
J. S. LANGFORD.

TO THE REPUBLICANS OF ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

This is for the purpose of notifying the public that I will not be a deputy under J. S. Langford, in case he is nominated and elected Sheriff of this county. I have voluntarily withdrawn from this race in justice to Mr. Langford, because of some talk that has been handled about me within the last few days.

Very truly,
M. V. SWINFORD.

TO THE REPUBLICANS OF ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

For the reasons stated in Mr. Swinford's card, he will not be my Deputy in case of my nomination and election as Sheriff of this County. His withdrawal was voluntary on his part.

Very truly,
J. S. LANGFORD

C. A. Slaughter has opened up a meat market in the store room of J. T. Proctor.

Mr. W. N. Roberts aged 79 years died at his home near Pine Hill Monday after an illness of several weeks. The deceased was born in Baltimore and came to this county some twenty odd years ago and located at Pine Hill where he has resided all the while living the life of an honorable and upright citizen. He has no relatives in the county and if he had any living elsewhere, it is unknown. The widow survives him. The burial took place at the Pine Hill cemetery Tuesday afternoon with the honors of the Masonic order.

Our town is doing some hustling in various lines. In building there is the "Rockcastle" a $10.00 hotel under way and will be ready to open by time frost falls, and will prove a great addition and convenience to the place. Its location is on site of the old Miller hotel, formerly Newcomb hotel at corner of Main and third streets. Sutton and McCabe are progressing nicely with their brick storehouse on East Main with Walter Gray expert brick layer putting them down in first class order and two Steves on the job.
Steve Proctor contractor and carpenter who has general supervision and Steve Carpenter who mixes a first class mortar. Joe McKenzie will soon have his residence finished on Lovell's Lane. Fritz Kruger is putting up a brick kiln on West Main street and when burned will begin the erection of a business and opera house at rail road crossing Main street. Mr. Krueger has erected more all brick buildings in Mt. Vernon than any other man and says he has just fairly started in. W. J.

Sparks Co., have blasted out enough stone in their Mt. Vernon quarry to last them three months or more when some two weeks ago they put off one blast containing six thousand seven hundred and fifty pounds of dynamite. This gives their big gasoline driven drill a resting spell but instead of taking a rest it is going ahead putting down six inch bored wells for citizens in and around town. Its "making wells while you wait". During the week it finish up wells for Rockcastle Hotel, Meshack Gentry, Earnest Thompson and others. Then there is the big fair right on hands "Things do move" hereabouts.

To you 10 candidates for jailer, that will get "licked," you can all meet Aug. 13, 14, and 15, in that good grove at the Brodhead Fair grounds during the Fair and decide on why you ever entered this race any way. It will help you next time.

Some stirring around Brodhead, getting ready for the Fair of course.
They expect to put on a big one this year.

The Pastor of the Presbyterian Church will meet his regular appointment at Livingston on next Sunday.

There is talk of building the Rockcastle hotel entirely of Lang-stone. It would make a showy structure.

COMMERCIAL CLUB. All members of the Commercial Club are requested to be present at next Tuesday night's meeting promptly at 8 o'clock.

The north wall of Rockcastle hotel is progressing nicely. The Langford stone makes a mighty fine finish. The second story of the Sutton & McCabe brick is being pushed.

John Woodward of Laurel, republican candidate for legislature,

NOTICE TO THE VOTERS OF ROCKCASTLE COUNTY

Some of my enemies are going in the West side of the county and telling the people, if I am elected to the office of Sheriff that Dee Cummins will be dropped off, and that Geo. Griffin will be one of my deputies, which is untrue; and they go in the East side and tell that if I am elected that Jack Abney will be dropped off and Mr. Griffin will be a deputy which is untrue. I don't mean to throw any insinuations on the good name of Mr. Griffin or any of his friends, I only want these parties to tell the truth. If I am elected Mr. Griffin will have no part. Jack Abney and Dee Cummins will be my deputies. I am not afraid for the people to know who my deputies will be.

Subscribed and sworn to before me by Cam Mullins, this July 14, 1913.

E.S. ALBRIGHT,
Notary Public.
My commission expires Feb. 11, 1914

WHAT OTHER PEOPLE SAID ABOUT C. R. LUKER YEARS BEFORE HE BECAME A CANDIDATE.

Office of J. K. Lewis, Attorney-at-Law,
Superintendent of Laurel County Schools

London, Ky.,
Jan. 30, 1908.

To WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:—
Mr. Charles Luker is a teacher of this county who has given general satisfaction in all his teaching. He is a thorough scholar, a careful painstaking instructor, and a young man of good morals and correct habits. I recommend him to any board desiring a first class teacher.

Very respectfully,
J. K. LEWIS,
County Supt. of Laurel Co.

Haleyondale, Ga.,
June 18, 1908

To WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:—
Prof. C. R. Luker taught the public school at Middle Ground this year and gave entire satisfaction to all his patrons.

We considered him one of the best teachers we have had in years and we take pleasure in recommending him to any community wishing to employ a faithful teacher.

He is a young man of steady habits and excellent moral character.

W. D. SHEPHERD,
R. W. WALKER,
S. E. LEE.

Trustees of Middle Ground School.

London, Ky.,
Jan. 30, 1908.

To WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:—
I have known the bearer, Charles Luker, since his infancy and have always found him to be a strictly honest, sober, industrious young man of good moral character in every way, having the respect and confidence of all who know him.

He comes of good parentage and by close application and energy on his part has acquired his education and has taught in the Public Schools of our county with good success. He possesses good business ability and I feel cheerful in recommending him to any one desiring his services as teacher or in any other capacity believing that he will give satisfaction in any position for which he would ask.

Very truly,
P. R. PRINNINGTON,
Judge of Laurel Co.

Weaver, Ky.,
Oct. 15, 1904.

To WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:—

The bearer, Mr. Charles Luker is well known to me having been born and raised in my immediate neighborhood and having attended my school for a number of months. I can say he is a bright, intelligent and industrious young man of exceptionally good character and habits. He has never to my knowledge, been charged of any crime or misconduct of any kind and if given a fair chance, would I think, make an efficient clerk as he has a fair education and is a young man that wants to make somebody of himself.

Any favor that may be shown him will be thankfully received by him and appreciated by his father and mother, also, by him former teacher and neighbor.

C. A. CASTELL,
Dealer in General Merchandise.

I am submitting these recommendations to the public so that those who do not know me may judge my qualifications and earnestly trust that every voter in this district will give my candidacy due consideration.

I am anxiously awaiting your decision on Aug. 2nd.

Yours respectfully,
C. R. LUKER.

To the Republicans of Rockcastle County:

My opponents are making complaint, that I should not receive the nomination for County Attorney, on account of my long tenure in office. This is just the reason I should receive it, the County in legal contemplation is treated as an individual concern, if it is sued it is sued as an individual if it sues in legal parlance it sues as an individual party, such is true with your other business bodies of the county, your banks Telephone Companies, Coal mines the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company. Each of these may and have at the end, or oftener of each year changed their officers such as presidents, superintendents, general managers, cashiers, auditors, etc., but you never have known one of them to change its attorney so if it is true with one or many why not with all? It requires work, study and experience to become familiar with the affairs of all such businesses I say this not egotistically; but I believe if there is a person within the confines of the county who is familiar with the legal business that confronts your county I am. Every settlement every claim for or against the county some legal question will arise, every road made every one changed, every contract drawn some questions of law arise. I have been unable to see all the voters face to face, and cannot make a full canvass of the county on account of sickness in my family. I submit my qualifications with abiding faith in all and if named as your nominee will do all in my power to help carry our party to success; that progress peace and prosperity may abundantly abound throughout our home land we all love and cherish so well. So let us live onward and onward, that brighter eras may dawn with each fleeting year in this our native birth. I beg to remain, Your friend,

S. D. LEWIS.

Miss Tempest Ward.

To the Citizens of Rockcastle County:—

The education of our children is a sacred trust. Upon the training of our boys and girls of today depend the industrial, intellectual and moral conditions of the men and women of the future.

As a citizen of Rockcastle county, a teacher by choice and necessity, and a candidate for the office of Superintendent of schools of our county, I ask you to give careful consideration to my claims and will appreciate your support on August 2.

One hundred and four Republicans from different parts of the county have signed a petition declaring their intentions to support me for this school office. I ask the voters to consider what my friends think of my fitness for this place, instead of listening to those who may not be my friends may say.

I will outline some of the general policies for which I stand.

I believe in industrial as well as intellectual and moral training.

I favor a hearty co-operation of the rural, graded and high school interests of the county.

I believe a Superintendent should stand by the teachers, encourage them and help to bring about the same spirit among the patrons.

I think the greatest opportunity to better the schools is to strengthen the teachers, by requiring a higher standard from year to year.

I believe in economically expending the county's money, looking first after the necessities as to buildings and the supply of water.

I believe in keeping a school in reach of the children.

Of all questions I favor a fair consideration, believing strongly in "equal rights to all, exclusive privileges to none."

I favor the improvement of sanitary conditions of houses and grounds, especially a better ventilation of school houses.

One of our famous men once said: "Let the people rule." We should apply this in questions of school interest.

I trust my candidacy to your careful consideration and shall thank you for your support. Hoping to meet you personally before my campaign closes, I am, Sincerely your friend, TEMPEST WARD.

To the Voters of Rockcastle Co.:

Because of a slight illness I am and have been confined to my bed for the greater part of two weeks under the care of a doctor. This will make it impossible for me to canvass the county as thoroughly as I had expected. However I am improving rapidly and hope to be able to do some more riding before the election. I trust that my friends will rally to my support just as loyally as though I had seen you in person and solicited your help. I will be forced to leave my campaign almost entirely in your hands.

In those parts of the county where I have been I find the sentiment of the people against keeping one man in office a life time. I want each voter to consider earnestly and conscientiously whether it is right to continue to give your support to a man you have made rich already. The tax payers of this county have done enough for him. You have kept him in office almost 25 years another vote for him is a vote against a young man who is just starting in life and who is appealing to you for an equal show. I spent the first years of my life in qualifying myself to fill this position; now do you not think it would be only fair and just to give me a chance to serve the people of the county in the capacity of County Attorney. I want to say further to you that I am not the candidate of any man or set of men; I entered the race at the solicitation of friends all over the county. I am making my own race and asking the voters to honor me with this important office. I want to appeal to the people to stand by me in this fight and my effort put forth in my behalf will be remembered with a heart full of gratitude.

Your friend,
E. R. GENTRY.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
